

Lesson 7: Transport Through Time

MEMO

Activity 1

1. a) Rafts floated and moved with the flow of the water.
b) Canoes move with oars or poles.
c) Caravels moved with sails.
2. a) Arab dhow
b) Caravel
c) Chinese junk
3. - People could sail to other countries
- People could transport large amounts of heavy goods quickly.
- Trade in different exotic goods such as cloth, spices, tea.

Activity 2

1. The Titanic was a steamship.
2. 11 April 1912
3. The first voyage of the ship after it had been manufactured.
4. England
5. America
6. The ship was traveling too fast.
7. They managed to escape by using the lifeboats.
8. The ship was did not have enough lifeboats for the passengers. The people jumped off the ship. The water was freezing cold so they froze to death.

Activity 3

1. Ocean liners and ferries transport people.
Container/Cargo ships and Oil Tankers transport goods.
Ferries can transport people and goods (cars).
2. A container ship is a ship that transports big metal boxes called containers full of goods over the oceans.
3. Container ships can hold large amount of goods and these goods can be transported cheaply and quickly from one country to another.
Containers can be transferred easily to trucks for inland transportation.
4. - Ocean liners are slower than aeroplanes.
- Ocean liners are more expensive than traveling by aeroplane.