

Lesson 8: Transport Through Time

MEMO

Activity 1

1. Hot air balloons use hot air to lift them above the ground.
Airships used a gas called hydrogen which is lighter than air.
2. In the hot air balloon, they sat in a basket under the balloon.
In the airship, they sat in a carriage inside or underneath the airship.
3. 37 metres
4. - They invented different ways of steering the plane.
- They made better wings, propellers, and a lighter engine.
5. He flew around the Statue of Liberty in New York.
6. - Air travel is quicker.
- Air travel is cheaper.
7. - It adds to air pollution.
- It's very cramped for passengers.