

29 June 2020

Today is Monday.

Warm greetings to all our little Hartlings. We look forward to seeing you back to school soon and we are now preparing our classrooms for you. Our class numbers will be smaller and there will be only 20 learners in a class. We will also have to follow Covid Rules when we return to school. Remember to social distance by standing and sitting far apart from friends and teachers. No sharing of lunches, stationery and sanitisers. We must also practice washing of hands using soap and water and always be wise and sanitise.

- Oral work

Revise set 1 to set 3 words and sentences. You should be reading fluently by now. You must remember to revise an phonic words too.

- Written Work

Today you will look at this interesting picture and describe what you see. Would you like to visit Disney World? Remember to use the words from the word bank to help you along.
